Issues Have Been or Are Being Settled

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Aug. 6.—A strike which went into effect at the plant of Badenhause Corporation here last midnight, affects 375 of the 400 employees, it is stated.

The strike was called following a meeting of the United Steel Workers, C. I. O., at Bristol, last evening, during the course of which session it was decided to call a strike at the expiration date of the old contract, which was 12 o'clock midnight.

In negotiating for a new contract the workers have demanded a union shop in preference to maintenance of membership which formerly obtained, states works manager, Elmer Vansant. The United Steel Workers C. I. O. has been the sole bargaining agent.

According to Mr. Vansant, the C. I. O. broke off negotiations for a new contract at 2:30 yesterday afternoon. "The definite issue is for a union shop," he explained. "All economic issues have been settled, or are in the process of being settled."

The strike, it is stated by the management, is being conducted in an orderly fashion, "but there is mass picketing."

DANCES POPULAR

The dances held on Wednesday nights from nine until twelve o'clock in Bristol high school, sponsored by the R. H. S. Alumni Association, have been very successful. This is the first trip that Peddie boys have made to Nova Scotia. The idea was originated by Dr. Haslam, who for the past 16 years has been taking this annual canoe trip.

Five weeks ago the group left New York by train for Boston, Mass., where they boarded the S. S. Yarmouth for the cruise to Yarmouth, one of the largest seaports in Nova Scotia. Upon their arrival there, they employed two native guides and set out for their first canoe trip of

BRIDGE TRAFFIC IS SHOWN ON INCREASE

29.73% Gain Seen in One
Day's Figures for Calhoun Street Span

SUNDAY USE IS HIGH

MORRISVILLE, Aug. 6.—That bridge traffic on the two spans crossing the Delaware River here is increasing is shown in a report made by the Delaware River Joint Toll Commission.

On one recent day the Calhoun street bridge, to Trenton, N. J., was used by 11,971 vehicles. This figure is 29.73 per cent above the corresponding Saturday last year.

According to the report, there were 17,986 crossings over the lower bridge on July 26th. This is an increase of 13.52 per cent over the corresponding Saturday last year.

July 27th traffic on the Calhoun street span was 13,291, or up 16.37 per cent. Traffic on the lower bridge showed a slight drop on July 27th. The count was 15,518 vehicles.

During that week-end a total of 61,679 passed over the two bridges. This shows an increase of 13.47 per cent over the corresponding week-end a year ago.

The Reading Company, in its application to the Pennsylvania Utility Commission, has asked approval of the removal of the six crossing gates and two warning signs, and to substitute in their place four electrical-ly-operated gates, two of which will be equipped with red flashing lights for the purpose of controlling pedestrian and vehicular traffic on Bellevue avenue, and two of which are intended to control pedestrian traffic on the Reading Company's station platforms at the Bellevue avenue end of the platform, and further to install electric "No right turn" and "No left turn" signs at the Bellevue avenue end of the driveways leading to and from the station property; and further to install flasher light warning signs on either side of the crossing for the warning of traffic on the Bellevue avenue, and for the further approval to eliminate the 12-hour-duty watchman.

The Hulmeville protest is based upon the fact that children and other residents of the borough make use of the crossing in traveling to Langhorne-Middletown high school, Doylestown and other points north of the crossing, and for the purpose of making use of the facilities of the Reading Railroad Company. OBJECT TO PROPOSED
CROSSING CHANGES

Hulmeville Council Instructs
Attorneys to Appear and Oppose R. R. Request

AT SOUTH LANGHORNE

Residents of at least three communities in lower Bucks County—Langhorne Manor, South Langhorne and Hulmeville—are strenuously objecting to some of the proposed changes for safeguarding pedestrian and vehicular traffic over the grade crossing of the Reading Railroad at South Langhorne.

Hulmeville borough council took definite action at its meeting Monday evening when resolutions of protest were adopted and are to be forwarded to the Public Utility Commission at Harrisburg. Similar action is anticipated on the part of the boroughs of South Langhorne and Langhorne Manor, and possibly by others in that area.

The resolution cites the present safeguards at the crossing as consisting of six cross-arm gates, and two crossing warning signals, the gates being operated by watchmen on 24-hour duty, and being manually controlled from a watch-box on the south side of the crossing, and in addition a watchman on 12 hours a week, from 6:40 a. m., until 6:40 p. m.

The Reading Company, in its application to the Pennsylvania Utility Commission, has asked approval of the removal of the six crossing gates and two warning signs, and to substitute in their place four electrical-ly-operated gates, two of which will be equipped with red flashing lights for the purpose of controlling pedestrian and vehicular traffic on Bellevue avenue, and two of which are intended to control pedestrian traffic on the Reading Company's station platforms at the Bellevue avenue end of the platform, and further to install electric "No right turn" and "No left turn" signs at the Bellevue avenue end of the driveways leading to and from the station property; and further to install flasher light warning signs on either side of the crossing for the warning of traffic on the Bellevue avenue, and for the further approval to eliminate the 12-hour-duty watchman.

SCHOOL BOARD
ADOPTS SALARY
PLAN FOR FACULTY

Grants Certain Increases In Accordance With New State Law

BOARD FACES DEFICIT

Plan Adopted is Not the One
Suggested By The Teachers

An increased teacher salary plan costing Bristol Borough School District $1875 for the school year 1947-1948, unless as shown by figures submitted a teacher is "dropped" then a saving of $275, was adopted by the Bristol School Board last night.

The plan adopted is considered nearest to the present salary schedule plus the mandated salary increases under Bill 417.

The question of increases was presented to the Board by Paul Brown, representing the Bristol Teachers' Association. Three plans were submitted with a recommendation by the teachers that the one designated "Third Plan" be approved. This plan would have cost the district $10,125 for the term 1947-1948, providing one less teacher is employed than at present whose salary is placed at $2,150.

Much of the Board's time was taken up last night in discussing the teacher salary plan due to the adoption by the State Legislature of Bill 417 which mandates certain increases and fixes certain minimum and maximum salaries for the teachers. Any of the three plans could have been adopted under the new law.

THAT COLLEGE DECISION

What good is a college education? Where shall I go? Which course of study shall I pursue? Those are some of the questions that thousands of recent high school graduates are asking themselves at this time of the year.

Many know definitely what they expect to get from college. Some want special training so that they can become successful lawyers or doctors; others want to be engineers, architects or chemists. Some will pursue agricultural studies or the profession of journalism.

However, thousands of graduates have not decided about their courses of study. These boys and girls do not feel the urge of a special calling. Probably, parents will select the college and choose the curriculum.

Some of this uncertainty of mind must be blamed on the educational system of our country. Although it is the finest in the world, frequently it does not develop initiative or stimulate self expression.

The encouragement of hobbies and of individual interests in special kinds of study might awaken dormant enthusiasms in these "uncertain" students.

There are so many fields of specialized activity today and so much to be done, that boys and girls need not worry about what they "can do," but what they "shall do."

PROPER RESPECT

Since the end of the war a noticeable lack of respect is evident on certain occasions when the National Anthem is being played.

This is especially true at various types of athletic events where it has become customary to play the Star Spangled Banner. The custom is a fine one and is worthy of much praise. However, some people have been spoiling this patriotic beginning by their carelessness or ignorance of the respect due.

Some people are still arriving at the event when the band begins to play and fail to stop and stand at attention for the few moments it would require. Many continue their conversations and frequently hail a greeting to friends across the way. A few thoughtless ones even stand with their hats on while the band is playing.

Everyone should make a special effort to learn to do the right thing when the Star Spangled Banner is played. As soon as the band begins the National Anthem, every spectator should immediately rise to his feet and stand at attention. Persons moving about should halt. All talking should be stopped. Men and boys wearing hats should remove them with the right hand and hold their hats at the left shoulder—placing the right hand over the heart. These rules are simple and easy to remember.

An Old Timer is one who can remember the New Deal days when cabinet members, Congressmen and just about everybody in Washington flocked to the Russian embassy for orgies.

COMMUNICATIONS

Editor, Courier:

At a meeting of our Board of Directors a resolution was passed directing me to thank you for the interest and support given by the Courier during the time Senate Bill No. 33 was under consideration by the State Legislature. By keeping our membership and friends informed of the progress of the bill, and in recording the fact that the public was favorable to it, you have given very material aid to our program to again have water in the canal.

It is gratifying to know that this dream of so many years now nears realization.

Sincerely,

FRANCIS A. WADE,
Vice-President.

Editor, Courier:

As one of the eight managers who formed the constitution of the Bristol Suburban Baseball League, section by section, for the year of 1947, I wish to point out some misleading statements made by George V. Dougherty, in his recent letter.

I as manager of Badenhausen A. A., including Tom Burns, of the Bristol Legion, and Ira Smith, manager of the Langhorne Legion, along with Art Kravies, representing Dougherty's Hartman team, voted for the rule to bar players who play with other teams when their team was scheduled here.

The rule passed unanimously despite objections brought out by officers of the League who personally asked the Legion representatives their opinion of the rule. Both Legion representatives thought that, regardless of the discussion, stress and explained by the League officers, the rule barring such players should be inserted into the constitution.

Also, earlier in the season, I lost two players as the result of this rule, but did not voice any objection because I, and seven other managers and representatives, made this particular rule. We also voted unanimously that this constitution remain as is and under no circumstances be changed for the year of 1947.

Referring to "master-minds," I assume that Dougherty means the League officials. In my opinion these officials have organized one of the best baseball leagues this section has ever had because they had gumption enough to carry out the contents of the constitution which we managers formed section by section.

Yours in sports,
STANLEY VANDEGRIFT,
Manager, Badenhausen A. A.

A few hours after the Ford Motor Company had averted a nation-wide strike of its 107,000 employees by yielding to union demands for immunity from civil damage suits arising out of illegal strikes, the company announced suspension of assembly-line work and the lay-off of 51,000 workers. A strike over a similar demand at a supplier's plant had cut off delivery of bodies to Ford.

The AFL Ladies Garment Workers Union will not ignore the Taft-Hartley Labor Law. It will sign "no-strike" contracts, settle outlaws strikes by arbitration and will not boycott the NLRB.

VOLTZ NINE LOSES TO ST. ANN'S BY A SINGLE RUN

St. Ann's A. A. captured its 17th straight win and its 29th of the Suburban League last evening as it eked out a close 8-7 triumph over the Voltz-Texaco team, leaders of the second division of the circuit.

Ragged support handed to "Mike" Letch in the early part of the game gave the "Saints" the opportunity to clinch the win. In the first frame, two errors, a walk and double by "Freddie" Fields gave the ultimate winners a trio of tallies. Another error added the Wood Streeters to two more runs in the fifth.

The winning pitcher was "Kenny" Clark although he had to receive help from "Nate" Chichiletti. Chichiletti, league's leading hurler, relieved Clark with two out and Yates on third in the sixth frame. He retired Tazik for the third out.

The defensive work of Art Massi and "Freddie" Fields stood out in the St. Ann's victory. This pair handled 19 chances without a miscue. "Rabbit" Palumbo had three for the winners while Kohler and Yates had two hits each for Voltz.

Object To Proposed Crossing Changes

stated that the crossing is within a distance of approximately one mile of the limits of Hulmeville borough, and that it is common knowledge that children ignore and are heedless of mechanical warning devices; that upon numerous occasions vehicular traffic has become congested and at a stand-still upon the tracks of the Reading Company, and in the opinion of the members of Hulmeville borough council adequate protection requires that in addition to a watchman whose duty it will be to operate the gates, there should be on duty during the day-night hours an additional watchman as there is at the present time.

The borough solicitors, Paul J. Barrett, Esq., and Lawrence A. Monroe, Esq., have been directed to appear before the Pennsylvania Utility Commission on behalf of the borough and to take all necessary steps in connection with the protest.

EIGHT BOUTS ARE LISTED FOR ARENA

Announcement was made yesterday that tickets purchased for the amateur boxing show last Friday night will be honored at the St. Ann's Arena, Wood street, next Monday night when a card of eight bouts will be scheduled.
Last Friday night, the crowd was disappointed when several of the boxing teams failed to appear and not enough boys could be matched.
Yesterday, however, the Middle Atlantic District of the A. A. U. gave permission to hold the bouts on a Monday night, alternating with Barrington, N. J.
Monday night is a free night in the amateurs and all boxing teams are open and are more certain to appear. In addition, boys fighting under the colors of the St. Ann's club will also be matched.

FORFEIT GAME
LANGHORNE, Aug. 6—The Langhorne Legion was awarded a forfeit game from the Hibernians last evening on Playwick field. The Langhorne team was leading, 12-3, when "Kenny" Stewart, of the Hibs, injured his shoulder attempting to make a shoe-string catch of a fly hit by Ferrell. As the Hibernians did not have any replacements, Umpire Kado forfeited the game to Langhorne Legion. The batting and pitching record of the players in the game were not counted.

THIRD WARD NINE GOES INTO THIRD POSITION IN LEAGUE

Third spot in the first division of the Bristol Suburban League had another occupant last evening as the Goodwill Hose nine won over the Democrat Club, 7-2, to leap ahead of the Fifth Ward Sporting Club. The game was played on the Third Ward field.

It was Neal McCartney who turned in the pitching performance for the fire-eaters, limiting the Democrats to four hits. After the fourth inning, McCartney, with his slow tantalizing curve, was never in serious difficulty.

The Goodwill boys made nine hits off a trio of Democrat hurlers. Jack Schaffe started and left the premises in the fourth. He was replaced by Bob Norris who gave way to Hokey Leighton in the seventh.

The defeat was a costly one to the Democrat Club, dropping them into fourth place in the second division of the circuit.

The Brew with a Head of its Own—

Handsome is as handsome does! And that handsome head on a glass of Krueger Beer or Ale does a grand job of telling you what's to come in the way of downright good taste—mellow-mild smoothness—and gay natural liveliness! For that head is Nature's work—the result of natural carbonation. Count on it—Krueger is the brew with a head of its own—

—for folks who know what they like
